JOURNAL.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

25X1

25X1

Thursday - 2 | May 1962

	Mr. Tavanner, HCUA staff, suggest ding any news releases on the appearance ofbefore the Committees or two days due to the many newsworthy events that were occurring
the	outhout the world and would tend to block potential of the item by the pi
B w	one suggested that the only deterrent to helding such a release as long t
the	Committee desired, was the pessibility of a news release on 1 checked with Harold Koffsky, in ti
174-	3 I checked with Harold Keffeky, in the fartment of Justice, to see if he had any further information on the House
	vernment Operations Committee's action on the Pinberton Detective Ag SATINGERS AND AND SAND CONTRACTORS A MARKET AND THE A PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY
	i. Noticky said he had heard nothing further on this and was not auxiou to e
to e	i. Kelfsky said he had heard nothing further on this and was not auxious shock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill it die in Committee.
to d	i. Eaffsky said he had heard nothing further on this and was not anxious shock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill die in Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congression to d will Rel	thock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill die in Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressibilitiess, called to advise he had talked with Kurt Berchardt, Clerk of the to d will Rei Hel	i. Neffsky said he had heard nothing further on this and was not analous thack with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this hill die in Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressions, called to advise he had talked with Kurt Borchardt, Clerk of the Committee on interstate and Foreign Commerce concerning H.R. 1 to duril Rei Hen	i. Kelfsky said he had heard nothing further on this and was not anxious shock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this hill it die in Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressibilitions, called to advise he had talked with Kurt Borchardt, Clerk of the Committee on Interstate and Fereign Commerce concerning H. R. I amend section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934. Leahy advised Rei Hot to i	thock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill it is formulated. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressibilitions, sailed to advise he had talked with Kurt Borchardt, Clerk of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce concerning H. R. I amend section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934. Leahy advised rehardt that we had an interest in the bill. Borchardt could not indicate
Rei Her to i	thock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill die in Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressibilitions, called to advise be had talked with Kurt Borchardt, Clerk of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Communice concerning H.R. I amend section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934. Leahy advised rehardt that we had an interest in the bill. Borchardt could not indicate other action would be taken by the Committee on this bill but suggested to (will Rei Hot to (Bo)	thock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill die in Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressibilitions, called to advise he had talked with Kurt Borchardt, Clerk of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce concerning H. R. I amend section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934. Leahy advised rehardt that we had an interest in the bill. Borchardt could not indicate other action would be taken by the Committee on this bill but suggested to and this Agency discuss it with Chairman Oven Harris. Leahy was Rei Her to d Bod who Stating	thock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill it is in Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressibilitions, sailed to advise he had talked with Kurt Borchardt, Clerk of the ase Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce concerning H. R. I amend section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934. Leahy advised rehardt that we had an interest in the bill. Borchardt could not indicate other action would be taken by the Committee on this bill but suggested to and this Agency discuss it with Chairman Oren Harris. Leahy was crested in arranging such a meeting. Leahy also indicated that the San Rei Hon to i Bor who Sta into	thock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill it is a Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressibilities, called to advise he had talked with Kurt Borchardt, Clerk of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Communes concerning H. R. I have detten 305 of the Communications Act of 1934. Leahy advised school that we had an interest in the bill. Borchardt could not indicate ther action would be taken by the Committee on this bill but suggested to and this Agency discuss it with Chairman Oven Harris. Leahy was created in arranging such a meeting. Leahy also indicated that the San reign Relations Committee might possibly schools bearings on the San Rei Hen to i Boi who Sta into Year	thock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill it die in Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressibilitions, called to advise he had talked with Kurt Berchardt, Clerk of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce concerning H.R. I amend section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934. Leahy advised rehardt that we had an interest in the bill. Berchardt could not indicate other action would be taken by the Committee on this bill but suggested to and this Agency discuss it with Chairman Oren Harris. Leahy was crested in arranging such a meeting. Leahy also indicated that the San reign Relations Committee might possibly schedule bearings on the San reign Relations Committee might possibly schedule bearings on the San reign of the bill in the near future. I suggested to Lasky that before an
Rel Her Her Sta- inter- Ver	theck with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill it die in Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill it die in Committee. Jack Leaky, State Department Congressions, called to advise he had talked with Kurt Borchardt, Clark of the are Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce concerning H. R. I amend section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934. Leaky advised schor action would be taken by the Committee on this bill but suggested to and this Agency discuss it with Chairman Oren Harris. Leaky was crested in arranging such a meeting. Leaky also indicated that the Sentence of the bill in the near fewers. I suggested to Leaky that before an esting was arranged it would be desirable for our offices to meet and diesting was arranged it would be desirable for our offices to meet and diesting was arranged it would be desirable for our offices to meet and diesting was arranged it would be desirable for our offices to meet and diesting was arranged it would be desirable for our offices to meet and diesting was arranged it would be desirable for our offices to meet and diesting was arranged it would be desirable for our offices to meet and diesting was arranged in the sentence.
to the state of th	thock with the Committee staff on it. It is quite possible that this bill it is a Committee. Jack Leahy, State Department Congressibilities, called to advise he had talked with Kurt Borchardt, Clerk of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Communes concerning H. R. I have detten 305 of the Communications Act of 1934. Leahy advised school that we had an interest in the bill. Borchardt could not indicate ther action would be taken by the Committee on this bill but suggested to and this Agency discuss it with Chairman Oven Harris. Leahy was created in arranging such a meeting. Leahy also indicated that the San reign Relations Committee might possibly schools bearings on the San

CONCIDENTIAL